

Help Us Welcome Our New Surgeon Kasey Pierson, MD

Accepting
New Patients!

Dr. Pierson is a board-certified, fellowship-trained cornea, cataract and refractive surgery specialist. His practice focuses on state-of-the-art medical and surgical treatment of eye diseases. He has experience with routine and complex cataract surgery including placement of the latest intraocular lenses to reduce spectacle dependence, as well as traditional and partial thickness corneal transplantation (DSAEK/DMEK/DALK).

Specialties:

- Corneal Disease and Transplantation
- Corneal Ulcers/Infections
- Fuch's Corneal Dystrophy
- Keratoconus
- Cataract Surgery
- General Ophthalmology

Education:

- Cincinnati Eye Institute – Cornea/Anterior Segment Fellowship
- Medical College of Virginia – Chief Resident
- University of Arizona College of Medicine

